In what has been described as crusade for His Excellency the President, Dr. Julius Maada Bio's flagship initiative, the Commissioner of NaCSA, Amb. Ernest Mbaimba Ndomahina is seen crossing rivers; braving the jungles, reaching mountains and valleys in spreading hope and encouraging multitudes to embrace the "Feed Salone" initiative.

One key strategy employed by the NaCSA Commissioner Amb. Ndomahina in his thrive to reach the wider population is one-on-one interaction with pupils in the early grades – primary schools. The rationale here is to catch them young. On Monday, October 30, 2023 at the Movement of Faith Islamic Primary School at Maconteh Town, Kekeh Chiefdom in Port Loko District, Commissioner Ndomahina while on his familiarization tour made a stop over and interacted with pupils and staff of the school.

In his engagement with the pupils, Amb. Ndomahina re-echoed President Bio’s vision of Human Capital Development, which he noted, borne the fruits of the development they are enjoying through NaCSA. He further reiterated the government’s determination to tackle food insecurity through its ‘Feed Salone’ initiative.

“I am here to see the school which you all know was reconstructed by NaCSA. As the new Commissioner of NaCSA, I would be glad to know how much you are enjoying the facilities and in case there are areas you will want the Commission to assist. Above all, I bring you greetings from the Human Capital Development Champion, His Excellency the President Dr. Julius Maada Bio appointed me as Commissioner of NaCSA. I am also here to raise awareness on the government’s Big Five Game Changers, with special emphasis on the “Feed Salone” initiative, which is the flagship programme.

Amb. Ndomahina further encouraged the teachers and pupils to embrace the initiative and to serve as agents in propagating the ‘Feed Salone’ programme to the wider community.

The Movement of Faith Islamic Primary School at Maconteh Town, Kekeh Chiefdom, Port Loko District is among the twenty – one (21) Islamic Development Bank funded Sierra Leone Community Diven Development (SLCDD II) Project’s Quick wins infrastructure subprojects commissioned by His Excellency the President Dr. Julius Maada Bio in his first term of office.

AMB. ERNEST MBAIMBA NDOMAHINA VISITS SICK REGIONAL STAFF

Since his appointment by His Excellency the President Dr. Julius Maada Bio as NaCSA Commissioner, Ambassador Ernest Mbaimba Ndomahina has not only expressed his passion to re-brand and reposition NaCSA but has demonstrated that building solid employee's motivation and confidence is the way out.

He has continued to demonstrate this energy, passion and commitment through in-person meetings with employees including courtesy visits to those who can't make it to the office owing to health challenges. This is a demonstration that employees of the Commission are the critical drivers of the rebranding strategy and thus, their welfare has been placed high within the re-branding agenda.

It is on the basis of this fact that NaCSA Ambassador Ernest Mbaimba Ndomahina on Sunday, October 29, 2023 visited and extended a get-well soon message to the NaCSA Regional Coordinator, East - Foday Moriba who was recently hospitalized at the Kenema Government Hospital.

It comes with Love, Care, and Concern for all NaCSA staff regardless of position.

CHRIST THE KING COLLEGE OLD BOYS PAYS COURTESY VISIT TO AMB. ERNEST MBAINBA NDOMAHINAH

Christ the King College (CKC) located in the second city of Sierra Leone, Bo was founded by catholic clergy. Directed by Archbishop Thomas Joseph Brosnahan and implemented by Mother Marie Louis De Meester in 1953 the school started giving secondary education. It was the first catholic school to have been established outside Freetown as St. Edwards was the first in Sierra Leone. And 70 years down the years CKC has trained pupils to be hard-working and honest.

And that endeavour by the Catholic Mission has paid off hugely. Due to these remarkable achievements, the alumni association, COBA (Christ the King Old Boys Association) has launched a platinum celebration and in effort to galvanize support and solicit funding for the development of the school, the Western Area Chapter of COBA led by its Chairperson, Dr. Soccoh Kabia on Wednesday, October 1, 2023 paid a courtesy call on the Commissioner of NaCSA, Amb. Ernest Mbaimba Ndomahina to congratulate him on his appointment as Commissioner and lend his support towards the celebration and the development of the school.

During the session, the Commissioner welcomed the team and pledged his support towards the development strive of the school, recalling the few years he attended. He revealed that, he had always appreciated the experience he gained from CKC.

The COBA Chairperson for western Area Chapter, Dr. Soccoh Kabia was accompanied by his Public Relations Officer and COBA NaCSA staff members.
